

Satoshi Kawasaki

EXPERIENCE

Splunk 6 yrs 8 mos

Senior Engineering Manager

I managed and ensured the success of our Splunk for Good recipients. Along with my previous responsibilities, I brought the employees together to collaborate on non-profit initiatives.

2018-02 to 2020-03
San Francisco

Technical Lead

I performed all technical aspects for Splunk for Good, the global social impact team. We partnered with various nonprofit, academic, and government agencies to use Splunk.

2016-07 to 2018-02
San Francisco

Professional Services Consultant

I consulted for enterprise customers especially in advanced visualizations and dashboards leveraging my full-stack web background.

2013-08 to 2016-07
San Francisco

CA Technologies 1 yr 7 mos

Associate Services Consultant

I specialized in CA AppLogic and CA IT Process Automation Manager.

2011-07 to 2013-01
Atlanta

EDUCATION

Georgia Institute of Technology

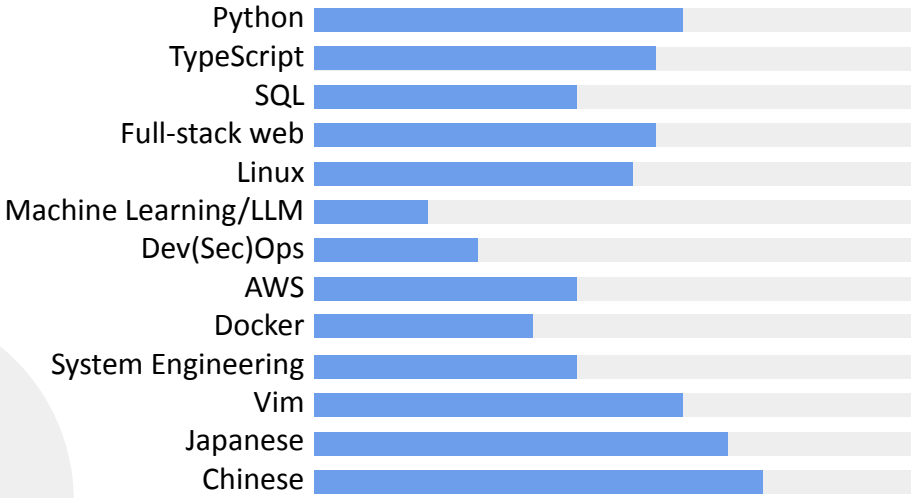

B.S. in Aerospace Engineering

Graduated 2011-05
Atlanta

PORTFOLIO

Selected to present 9 times for Splunk's annual user conferences
Anti-human trafficking with Global Emancipation Network
Detecting wildfires with Moraga-Orinda Fire District of CA
Refugee tracking and connectivity with NetHope
City tree maintenance with San Francisco Public Works
Trump vs Clinton election data from the FEC: fec.hobbes3.com

SKILLS

hobbes3@gmail.com

+1-404-333-2310

San Francisco, CA 94114

hobbes3.com
linkedin.com/in/hobbes3
github.com/hobbes3

A self-taught coder who went on to study rocket science, I now bring 8+ years of expertise in enterprise software and client-facing roles.

US Citizen